Subsections (5) and (6) are added to section 163.31801, Florida Statutes, to read: 163.31801 Impact fees; short title; intent; definitions; ordinances levying impact fees.-- (5) In any action challenging an impact fee, the government has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the imposition or amount of the fee meets the requirements of state legal precedent or this section. The court may not use a deferential standard. Section 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2009.	This bill amends s. 163.31801, F.S., to require that, should a person challenge an impact fee ordinance, the government that enacted the ordinance must show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the imposition or amount of the fee meets the requirements of state legal precedent or statute. The bill also provides that the court may not use a deferential standard that favors either party. The effect of this change is that the court will not use the "fairly debatable" standard of review when evaluating the legality of an impact fee ordinance. 04/16/09 - HBCS "Notwithstanding any law, ordinance, or resolution, a county, municipality, or special district may not increase any	Strongly Oppose	FLC & FAC	05/21/09 - Approved by Governor; Chapter No. 2009-49

Requires the Legislature to provide by general law for distribution of revenues collected on parcels that exceed the 1.35	"(c)Notwithstanding any other provision of this constitution, the maximum amount of all ad valorem taxes collected by counties, municipalities, school districts, and special districts on any parcel of real property shall not, when combined, exceed one and thirty-five hundredths percent (1.35%) of the parcel's highest taxable value. For purposes of this subsection, the term "taxable value" means the value of real property to which millage rates are applied. By general law, the legislature shall provide for the distribution of tax revenues derived from parcels for which combined ad valorem tax levies exceed one and thirty-five hundredths percent (1.35%) of the parcel's highest taxable value. This subsection does not apply to ad valorem taxes levied for the payment of bonds issued pursuant to Section 12 of this Article or levied for periods not longer than two years when authorized by a vote of the electors."	Monitor		05/02/09 - House Resolution Died in Messages.
